NOTES FOR APPLICANTS

You must apply for a scholarship at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for an LSBF Graduate Programme. All information provided in the application form will be considered when applying for the Emerging Markets Scholarship Scheme (EMS).

The criteria for a successful scholarship applicant are as follows:

- You must be an applicant for a place on an Undergraduate or Postgraduate programme at LSBF
- You should be committed to contributing to the socio-economic development of the country you are coming from by implementing the new skills and knowledge acquired whilst in the UK
- You should have an established career, with a track record of excellence and achievement and the prospect of becoming a leader in your chosen field
- You must have good English Language skills: see the English language proficiency requirements for our Graduate Programmes
- You must have sufficient funds to meet your tuition fees and living expenses, after taking account of the possible award of an Emerging Markets Scholarship

All scholarships are awarded only in the form of a reduction in tuition fees payable to LSBF.

Completed application forms should be submitted at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for an LSBF graduate programme to the following address:

4. Personal statement*

Please state in not more than 1,000 words in the space provided below:

- a) How you think you will benefit in terms of career and personal development from obtaining a scholarship from LSBF.
- b) How you will contribute to the socio-economic development of the country you are coming from through implementing the new skills and knowledge acquired in the UK;

Continue on a separate sheet, if necessary.

* The School reserves the right to investigate and possibly withdraw a person from the scholarship programme, if there is adequate evidence of plagiarism and/or of the student utilising other people's written statements.

5. Finances

We are unable to consider applications from candidates who have not already secured sufficient funds to meet their tuition fees and living expenses at the time of application. Please state below how your tuition fees and living expenses are expected to be met.

6. Terms and conditions

1. Scholarship applicants must apply for a scholarship at the same time as, or subsequent to, applying for one of LSBF's Bachelor/Master programmes. All information provided in the application form will be considered when applying for the LSBF's Scholarships Scheme.
2. The Emerging Markets Scholarships (EMS) is awarded only in the form of a reduction in tuition fees payable to LSBF.
3. Please note that you can only apply for ONE scholarship or bursary. If, for example, you applied for a Corporate Scholarship, you would not be allowed to apply for an EMS.
4. All the remaining fees must be paid 30 days before the start of the programme. Students who have not paid on time will not be granted access to the School.
5. The Student agrees that he/she cannot change, defer the scholarship, without prior permission from LSBF.
6. If a student intends to postpone his/her place until the following intake, he needs to pay the remaining tuition fee. He will be permitted to do so only at the discretion of the School.
7. The scholarship is not transferable to another student.
8. In the event that a student does not attend a programme due to unforeseen circumstances (death, accident, or serious illness) a specific committee will examine each case on an individual basis.
9. Attendance is compulsory. An attendance rate of less than 90% will lead to scholarship withdrawal.
10. Any failure to start the course as scheduled without prior notification of the School's authorities will lead to scholarship withdrawal.
11. The School reserves the right to disclose students' details, including academic progress and attendance rates to the Home Office authorities.
12. The scholarship is for the ONE named person and LSBF will not be responsible for a scholar's family members/spouse/children, etc. If a scholar wishes to have a family member accompany him/her, they need to be aware that LSBF accepts no responsibility or liability for those accompanying the scholar for further education.
13. LSBF may also use information collected regarding scholars within the School's marketing activities; however, students' personal information regarding addresses and telephone numbers will not be disclosed without the permission of the student.
14. LSBF may feature your interview/photo/profile/story on the LSBF website and/or other School publications and will ask for your permission/approval prior to publishing.
15. The School reserves the right to utilise this information in the promotion of the School and in any other student recruitment and/or Scholarship promotion activities.
16. Please note that when requested scholars are required to show originals (not photocopies) of transcripts and documents submitted in evidence with their scholarship application, and present these to the Scholarship office. If there are reasons to believe the documentation is NOT 100% genuine, the scholarship award will immediately be invalidated and withdrawn. The School accepts NO liability in such cases.
17. It is the scholar's responsibility to set a good example, e.g. strive for best results, attend classes, finish the course on time and continue to demonstrate the exemplary student attributes/grades by which he/she was awarded the scholarship.
18. By invitation only, scholars will take part in welcoming new students to the scholarship programme.
19. The Scholarship panel, LSBF and HRH Prince Michael of Kent, GCVO are not in a position to provide information regarding unsuccessful applications.
20. The School reserves the right to investigate and possibly withdraw a person from the scholarship programme if there is adequate proven evidence of serious allegations of illegal activities.

By signing this application form, you confirm that you agree to all of the terms and conditions related to scholarships set out by LSBF.
